B. T. W., holder of many dreams and conqueror of realities, has stood distinctly during its existence. B. T. W. has been and will continue to set the pace for the best education possible. This great learning institution has enabled students to attend places of higher education anywhere in the U. S. A. It has produced many educational, political, social and economical successes that will forever be embedded in the past and future of B. T. W. Having been built in perilous times, B. T. W. has produced successes that will live on forever. These successes have enabled us to see the birth and the maturing of B. T. W.'s stars, and have allowed us to watch them release their dreams and grasp their realities.

MR. & MISS LION

For 1982, the Lion staff began what we hope will become an annual tradition at BTW, selection of the ideal boy and girl from among the senior class. These are the two students who best exemplify those qualities which we at Washington hold in highest regard. The Lion staff nominated 10 boys and 10 girls on the basis of character, scholarship, spirit, and appearance. These students were then presented to the senior class who voted for their ideals. We now present to you the best-kept secret of the year, Mr. & Miss Lion for 1982, Kevin Ross and Cynthia Holmes. They are the overall "Stars" of BTW in our eyes. The following couples round out the top five: 1st runners up Kenneth Jones and Angela Atkins; 2nd runners-up Reginald Banks and Vonda Smith, 3rd runners-up David Pipkin and LaTonya Johnson; 4th runners-up Kevin Turner and Karen Anderson

HOMECOMING

The 1981 Homecoming of B T Washington left us starstruck. Our football team beat the stars out of Carroll High with a score of 21-20 in a thrill-filled contest. Our homecoming not only consisted of victory, but also beauty. Miss Karen Coleman served as Queen. Her court was made up of Senior Princesses, Angela Phillips and Gloria Phillips, Junior Princess Vanessa Alford; Sophomore Princess, Marvette Pippins, and Freshman Princess, Lisa Randle. Chosen as Football Sweetheart was senior Donna Riptoe. Yes Lions, we can certainly say our homecoming was a night to remember.

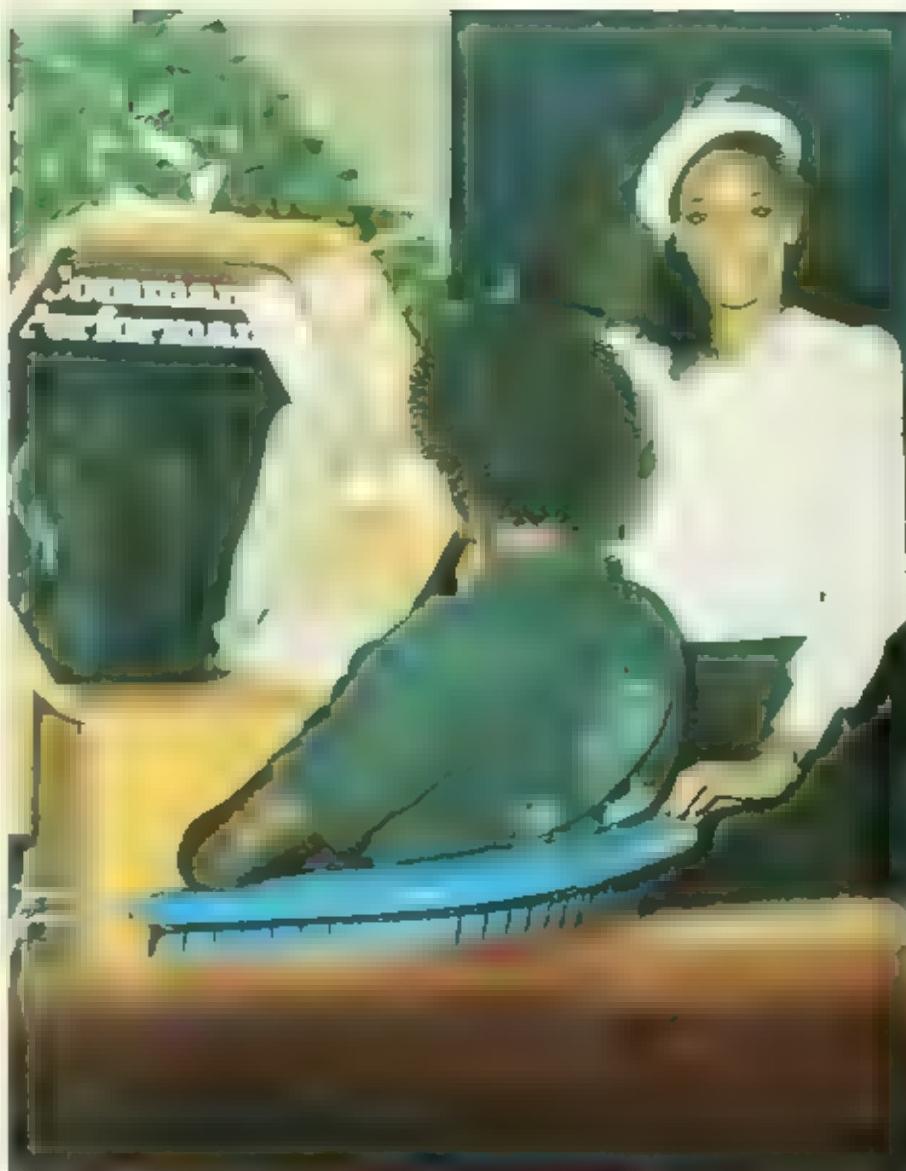

SENIORS

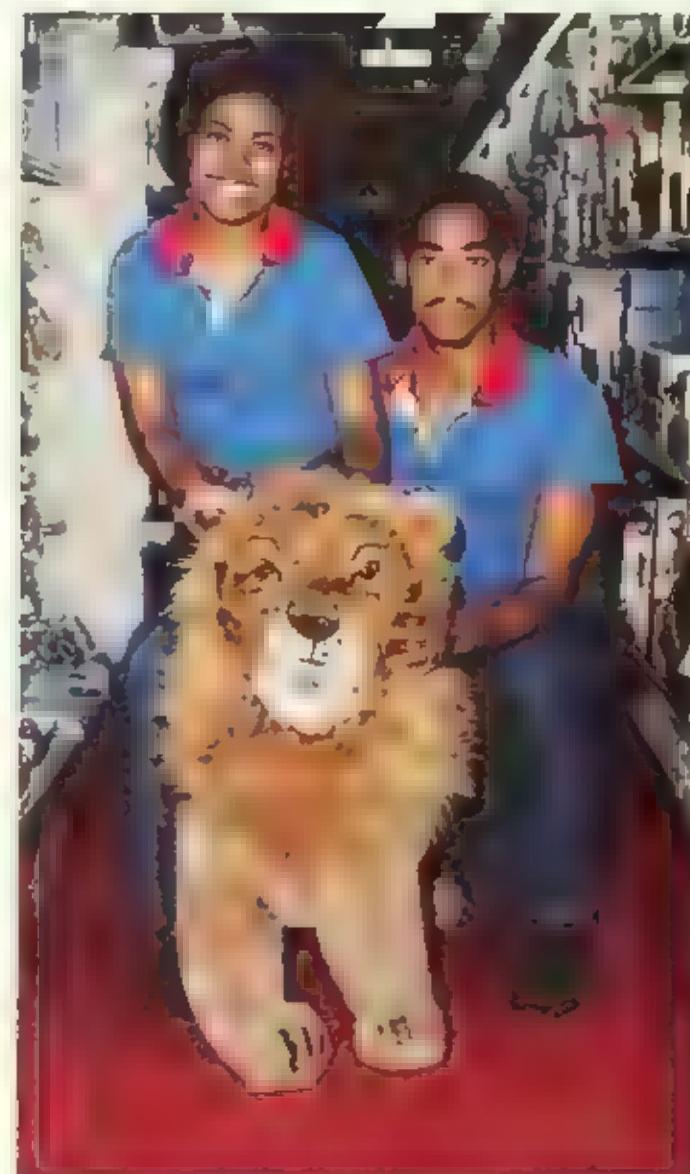

Senior Favorites

The senior favorites for the class of 1982 of BTW are the students their peers elected as the chosen stars of their class. (1) The most handsome boy, Frederick James, and the prettiest, Anita Holmes, flaunt their good looks in Command Performance. (2) The most academic, Quintus Brown and Brondwyn Holliway, are captured in their home away from home, Waldenbooks (3) The best dancers, Tina Claville and Jimmy Eiland, select a new tune to move to in Musicland. (4) Mr. and Miss Personality, Ezekiel Moore and Angela Atkins, are out card selecting in the Card Cage. (5) The most spirited, Andre Jones and Donna Riptoe, are aroused by a good pinball game in the Land of Oz. (6) Best dressed, Kenneth Zachary and Curley Reed, stopped shopping for a moment to pose in the Ranch. (7) Most humorous, Gloria Phillips and Craig Crawford stopped playing just long enough to be photographed at Kaybee Toy Store. (8) Who in the senior class would most likely be taken in Rider's Jewelry? Gwendolyn Mitchell and Cary Crawford, the most likely to succeed. (9) Helen Blunt tries to prove to Gregory Humphrey that she is just as strong as he is in Oshman's Sporting Goods. They are the most athletic

Charles "Buddy" Roemer, U.S. Congressman, 4th District

"Together We Can Make a Difference."

Do you need a reason to join the Louisiana National Guard?

Well, here are some very good incentives- -
FREE COLLEGE TUITION:

State law provides exemption from tuition payments in all state supported Colleges in Louisiana for all active members of the Louisiana National Guard. This exemption may be claimed for five (5) separate years or until receipt of a bachelors degree, whichever occurs first.

$1500 ENLISTMENT BONUS

or

$4000 IN EDUCATIONAL ASSISTANCE

High school seniors and graduates who enlist in certain National Guard units may receive a $1500 enlistment bonus, or $2000 in educational assistance.

SPLIT TRAINING PROGRAM

Split training means that your Basic Training and Advanced Individual Training in the National Guard (which must be completed within a twelve (12) month time frame) can be staggered to fit your personal schedule.

For example, you can take Basic Training the summer of your junior year. Consider it a paid full-time summer job. During your senior year of high school, you will go to the monthly National Guard meetings. Consider it a paid part-time job. Then you can take your Advanced Individual Training the next summer, be paid for that too, and be home in time to attend college, business or vocational school in September. That's two summers of full-time employment and two years of part-time employment.

LION STAFF

1981-82 has been a year of interesting happenings here at BTW. Beginning with 55¢ lunches with smaller portions, we moved on to a football players' strike during an 0-5 district season, a broken water main, an overdramatized basketball skirmish, and last (so far) but not least, an extended absence of our principal due to illness. On top of all this, 1982 was our year for a 10-year evaluation. Seldom would you expect to find all these events happening in one year. An outsider might term this year "bunk." Quite the contrary! During our lousy football season, we had the best pep rallies ever. As for the spread of defeatism, our basketball team is at this time in the playoffs on the way to "STATE." Just because the chips are down we don't go down with them. Even though this year did not bring overwhelming victories, we as a whole looked to tomorrow. We lost neither faith nor pride in our school. BTW stands tried but true.
